FINIS.

 G. SAEL begs Leave to offer his moſt grateful Thanks to his Friends and the Public, for that liberal Support he has hitherto experienced, and hopes his earneſt Endeavours will in future merit a Continuance of their Favours.

He farther begs Permiſſion to add, that having formed a Correſpondence in different Parts of the KINGDOM, with thoſe Perſons who have long been in the Habit of COLLECTING CURIOUS and RARE BOOKS, he hopes to be enabled very frequently, if not at all Times, to furniſh Gentlemen (who may honour him with their Commands) with ſuch Books, that from Time, or other Circumſtances may have become remarkably SCARCE, and not often to be found with the Bookſellers in the Metropolis.

Had the Connection been formed a little earlier, he has not the ſmalleſt Doubt, but that this preſent Catalogue (which is only his ſecond) would have exhibited a far greater Variety of ſcarce and curious Works, which he truſts in a future one to be able to accompliſh, ſhould he be fortunate enough to meet with Encourgement adequate to the Undertaking.
